FOREWORD

I am glad that Ordo (pastoral liturgical guide) is prepared for the year 2018-19 with utmost care and hard work to provide an extensive, accurate & relevant information for orderly, effective & meaningful liturgical celebration & worship in the Churches & Chapels of Archdiocese of Hyderabad. The significance, sense of 'Sacredness' & 'Awe' are to be promoted more & more through the liturgical celebrations in the Chapels & Churches. The purpose of the liturgical year is to understand and celebrate meaningfully the entire mystery of Jesus Christ from Birth, Public life, Suffering, Death, Burial, Resurrection, Ascension, Pentecost and until His Second Coming. For the Catholics, Sunday Liturgy needs to be made as the source and summit of the Catholic Faith, for which the Community needs to participate in singing at-least for major part. The choir is also there to lead & give correct intonation. It is not a substitute for community singing.

In liturgical matters & celebrations, we have to be faithful to the Church & to the spirit of Liturgy and the liturgical texts, specially to the Eucharistic Prayers & Prefaces. Any innovation or creativity are to be within the framework of the provisions mentioned in the General Instructions [GIRM] given by Holy Mother the Church.

For clarity & easiness, the Birthdays, Ordination Anniversaries, the Death-anniversaries of the deceased Archbishops & Priests, are given in pages 156 to 183 for your reference. Please pray for them.

We pray that the Sacred Liturgical Celebrations will help us to live & celebrate the Paschal Mystery joyfully in the spirit of our Catholic faith, to grow in it further & further, to share it with others and ultimately to bear witness to Jesus Christ, the Risen Lord & reach one day our heavenly Home.

+ Thumma Bala

INTRODUCTION

The image of the Catholic Church is well depicted in believing, proclaiming, celebrating and serving the Lord. All these four aspects are very well merged in the solemn Liturgy of the Church. We believe in Jesus Christ and so we gather together to worship, to praise and to offer thanks. To Him who sits upon the throne and to the Lamb be blessing and honor and glory and might for ever and ever (Rev 5:13). Thus, we celebrate and serve our Lord and Redeemer.

Liturgy is an official public worship of the Church, which celebrates the mystery of Christ. Sacrosanctum Concilium calls the liturgy "the outstanding means where by the faithful may express in their lives and manifest to others the mystery of Christ and the real nature of the true Church." (Sc-2)

The Liturgy of the Church is a means of Sanctification. It is a celebration of the Church's faith and a means of transmitting the faith. Together with Sacred scriptures and the teachings of the Fathers of the Church, it is a living source of authentic and sound spirituality. Through the Liturgy the faithful enter into Communion with the Most Holy Trinity and experience their sharing in the divine nature as a gift of grace. In this way the liturgy becomes a foretaste of final blessedness and a sharing in the glory of the heaven. "In the earthly liturgy we take part in a foretaste of that heavenly liturgy which is celebrated in its Holy City of Jerusalem towards which we Journey as pilgrims, until Christ will appear and we too will appear with Him in glory" (S.S.C.8) Vat II

The liturgical year dawns with the ADVENT of Jesus - the Emmanuel - 'God with us' evoking a feeling of oneness with Jesus Christ. This sacred liturgy provides the occasion to destroy sin and power of Satan in our lives.

We effectively reciprocate the love of God during the LENT. The intense love of God is shown through the Sacrifice of his own son who shed his blood to forgive all our sins and thus sanctify our lives. Thus the Lent renders an opportunity of self-introspection and closer communion with our Creator. During Lent the celebration of Sacrament of reconciliation and transformation enables us to say in the words of St. Paul, "I no longer live, but Christ lives in me".

The celebration of the resurrected Christ is so rich in meaning and in grace that it enjoins us to extend the period of celebration. Thus providing an opportunity of hope and reunion with our heavenly Father. Thus if the entire body of Christ exalts the Lord incessantly and intercedes continuously for the entire world, in faith, it is definite that we will receive from the Father who cares for us.

The liturgy of the hours, presumes regular gatherings of the Christian people in house holds, monasteries, and local Churches morning and evening for public praise, thanksgiving, lament and intercession in Christ's name and in communion with him. Thus fostering the spirit of unity, harmony and peace.

May we experience that magnanimous grandeur of God and tread of his path of nobility. What we need is not more Christianity, but more Christians who practice it.

We hope and pray that the Faithful may actively and fruitfully participate in all liturgical celebrations.

Pastors should take care that in the liturgy not only are the laws governing valid and lawful celebration observed, but also that the faithful take part with full awareness, and in active and fruitful participation (SC, 11).

Since the celebration of the Eucharist, like the entire liturgy, proceeds by means of tangible signs that foster, strengthen, and give expression to faith, the utmost care must be taken to choose and to arrange those forms and elements provided by the Church which in the given circumstances of persons and places will best foster active and full participation and best meet the spiritual needs of the faithful (IM, 20).

days is observed. But a solemnity, impeded by a liturgical day of higher rank, is transferred to the nearest day which is not among those mentioned under 1-8 of the table of precedence. Other celebrations so impeded are omitted.

When the vespers of a liturgical day concur with the first Vespers of the following liturgical day, the Vespers of the celebration which is of a higher rank, according to the table of precedence are to be preferred. When both the celebrations are of the same rank, the Vespers of the current day are to be preferred.

GENERAL NORMS FOR THE LITURGICAL YEAR AND THE CALENDAR

The Liturgical Day

1. The liturgical day runs from midnight to midnight. However, the celebration of Sunday and of solemnities begins on the evening of the day before (LY. 3).
2. Sunday is to be regarded as the primordial feast (LY 4). Because of its special importance, the celebration of Sunday gives way only to solemnities or to feasts of the Lord, except that the Sundays of the Advent, Lent, and Easter seasons take precedence over all feasts of the Lord and over all solemnities. Solemnities occurring on these Sundays are observed to another day.

3. Solemnities are regarded as being the most important days in the calendar and their celebration begins with first vespers on the evening of the day before. Some solemnities also have their own Vigil Mass for use when Mass is celebrated in the evening the day before (LY 11).
4. Feasts are celebrated within the limits of the natural day and accordingly do not have first vespers. Exceptions are feasts of the Lord inscribed in the general calendar, that fall on a Sunday of Ordinary Time or of the Christmas season and which replace the Sunday Liturgy (LY 13).
5. Memorials are either obligatory or optional. Their observance is integrated into the celebration of the weekday in accord with the norms set forth in the General Instructions of the Roman Missal and of the Liturgy of the Hours. Obligatory memorials occurring on Lenten weekdays may only be celebrated as optional memorials. Should more than one optional memorial fall on the same day, only one may be celebrated; the others are omitted (LY 14).
6. On Saturdays in Ordinary Time when no obligatory memorial occurs, an optional memorial of the Blessed Virgin Mary is permitted (LY 15).

7. The days of the week that follow Sunday are referred to as weekdays. They are celebrated in different ways according to their particular importance (LY 16).

Rogation Days and Ember Days

8. On Rogation Days and Ember Days the Church is accustomed to entreat the Lord for the various needs of humanity, especially for the fruits of the earth and for human labour, and to give thanks to God publicly. In order that the Rogation Days and Ember Days may be adapted to the needs of people and places, the Bishops' Conference should arrange the time and manner in which they are held. Consequently, concerning their duration, or whether they be repeated during the year, norms are to be established by the competent authority according to local needs. (LY 4-47).

When several celebrations coincide

9. If several celebrations fall on the same day, the one that holds the highest rank according to the preceding Table of Liturgical Days is observed (LY 60).

10. If a solemnity is impeded in any given year, it is transferred to the nearest day following designated in nn. 1-8 of the Tables given above (LY 60). If, however, a solemnity is impeded by a Sunday of the Advent, Lent or Easter seasons, the solemnity is transferred to the Monday following, or to the nearest free day, as laid down by the General Norms. However, if a solemnity is impeded by Palm Sunday or by Easter Sunday, it is transferred to the first free day after the Second Sunday of Easter (decision of the Congregation for Divine Worship, dated 22 April 1990, in Notitiae 26 (1990) 160). Any other celebrations that are impeded are omitted for that year.

11. If, however, the same day were to call for celebration of vespers of that day's office and first vespers of the following day, the vespers of the day with the higher rank in the Table of Liturgical Days takes precedence; in cases of equal rank, vespers of the actual day take precedence (LY 61).

"Outward celebration"

12. For the pastoral good of the faithful, it is permissible to observe on the Sundays of Ordinary Time those celebrations that fall during the week and have special appeal for the devotion of the faithful, provided those celebrations take precedence over the Sundays of Ordinary Time in the Table of Liturgical Days. The Mass for such celebrations may be used at all the Masses at which the people assemble (LY 58).

THE DIFFERENT FORMS OF CELEBRATION

When the Archbishop presides

1. In the local Church prime place should be given to the Mass at which the bishop presides surrounded by his presbyterium, deacons and lay ministers and in which the people take full and active part. For this Mass is the principal manifestation of the nature of the Church (IM 112)

Parish Mass

2. Great importance should also be attached to a Mass celebrated with any community, and in particular the parish community, in so far as it represents the Universal Church gathered at a given time and place, above all in the celebration of Sunday (IM 113)

Community Mass

3. As regards Masses celebrated by certain communities, a special place goes to the conventional Mass; which is part of the daily Office, or to the community Mass. Although such Masses are not marked by any special form of celebration, it is most proper that they be celebrated with singing, with the full participation of all community members, whether religious or canons. In these Masses, therefore, individuals should exercise their proper role according to the order or ministry they have received.

It is hence appropriate that all priests who are not bound to celebrate individually for the pastoral benefit of the faithful should in so far as possible concelebrate at the conventional or Community Mass. Further, all priests belonging to the community who are obliged to celebrate individually for the pastoral benefit of the faithful may also on the same day concelebrate at the conventional or community Mass (IM 114)

Concelebrated Masses

4. Concelebration of the Eucharist aptly expresses the unity of the sacrifice and of the priesthood and whenever the faithful take an active part; the unity of the people of God stands out in a particular fashion, especially if the bishop presides.

Concelebration also symbolizes and strengthens the fraternal bond between priests, because by virtue of the ordination to the priesthood and the priestly mission that they have in common, all priests are linked together in a close bond of brotherhood.

For this reason, unless the needs of the faithful (which always must be considered with great pastoral concern) prevent it, and without prejudice to the faculty of every priest to celebrate Mass individually, it is highly appropriate that priests celebrate Mass in this excellent manner either in communities of priests, in groups meeting at regular intervals, or in other similar circumstances. Those who live in community or minister at the same church should gladly welcome visiting priests to concelebrate with them. Superiors should therefore facilitate this and indeed encourage concelebration whenever pastoral needs or another reasonable cause do not demand otherwise (Instruction Eucharisticum Mysterium n.47)

FEW INSTRUCTIONS

The Gloria is said

- 1) On Sundays outside of Advent and Lent
- 2) On Solemnities and Feasts.
- 3) On days of special celebrations of a more solemn nature.

It is not said:

- 1) On ferial days, not even of Christmas time or Paschal time.
- 2) On Memorials of Saints.

The Collects

Always only one (therefore, no commemorations of any kind). The Collect ends with the long conclusion; the Prayer over the Gifts and the Post Communion with the short conclusion.

Usually with the Collects proper to the Masses are to be said. However, in Masses of Memorials, the Collect can be the proper one or from the Common. But the Prayer over the Gifts and the Post Communion, if they are not proper, can be either from the Common or from the Ferial.

On ferias 'per annum', the prayer can be either of the preceding Sunday, or of any Sunday 'per annum', or one of the prayers for diverse needs, which are found in the Missal.

READINGS FROM THE SACRED SCRIPTURE

1. On Sundays: There are three readings: one from the OT, one from the Letters of the Apostles, and the third from the Gospels. It is highly desirable that the three should be read. Only two readings may be had for pastoral reasons and if the Bishops' Conference so decides.
2. On Week days: The ferial lectionary should be followed, except on Solemnities and Feast days. If, however, the serial readings of the Lectionary are interrupted because of some feast or for some special reason, the celebrant may combine the omitted readings or some of their parts with the readings of the current weekday.
3. At Masses for special groups, a reading which is suitable to the occasion may be chosen, provided it is from the approved texts of the lectionary.

4. Chants between the readings

1. When there are three readings of Sacred Scripture:
 - a. After the 1st reading, the responsorial psalm is sung or recited.
 - b. After the 2nd reading, either the Alleluia or another acclamation as required by the Liturgical season is sung then the verse before the Gospel is sung or recited. Alleluia or another acclamation may be repeated.
2. When there are two Readings:
 - a. During Liturgical Seasons when 'Alleluia' has to be said: either the Alleluia psalm; or the psalm with its response is followed by Alleluia with its verse sung or recited.
 - b. During Liturgical Seasons when Alleluia is not said: either the psalm with its response and the verse before the Gospel with the acclamation is recited or sung. As to the psalm which occurs between the Readings, it can be either sung or recited, whereas the Alleluia or the verse before the Gospel may be omitted, if it is not sung. The sequences are obligatory only on Easter and Pentecost days. On other days, they are optional.

The Creed

Is said on 1) Sundays; 2) Solemnities; May be said on days of special celebrations of a more solemn nature.

ANTICIPATED CELEBRATION OF FESTIVE MASS ON THE PREVIOUS EVENING

6. The obligation of assisting at the Sunday or feast day Mass may be satisfied by participating at Mass on the Feast itself or at evening Mass on the previous day (CCL canon 1248, 1).

An evening Mass celebrated with the aim of satisfying the obligation of the Sunday or feast day following will be arranged with all the elements of a Sunday or Feast day Mass, whether obligatory (homily, prayer of the faithful) or recommended (amplifier participation of the people through singing etc. IM 115-116).

CHOICE OF MASS TEXTS

(IM, 352-355, 363)

7. On solemnities the priest chooses the Mass formularies in accordance with the calendar of the church where he is celebrating.
8. On Sundays, on weekdays of the Advent, Christmas, Lent and Easter seasons, on feasts, and on obligatory memorials:
 - a. If Mass is celebrated with the people, the priest should follow the calendar of the church where he is celebrating;

- b. If Mass is celebrated without a congregation, the priest may choose either the calendar of the church or his own calendar.
9. On optional memorials:
- a. On the weekdays of Advent from 17 December to 24 December, during the octave of Christmas, and on the weekdays of Lent other than on Ash Wednesday and in Holy Week, the priest celebrates the Mass of the weekday. However, he may take the opening prayer from a memorial inscribed in the General Roman Calendar for that day, except on Ash Wednesday and during Holy Week.
 - b. On the weekdays of Advent before 17 December, or on the weekdays of the Christmas season from 2 January onwards, and on the weekdays of the Easter season, the priest may choose the weekday Mass, the Mass of the saint or of one of the saints whose memorial falls that day, or the Mass of a saint inscribed in the Martyrology for that day.
10. On the weekdays in Ordinary Time, the prayers may be taken either:
- a. from anyone of the 34 Sundays in Ordinary Time, with the faculty to take some of the prayers from still another Sunday of Ordinary Time or from among the prayers for various

- needs and occasions (IM 363);
- b. From the Mass of a saint inscribed in the calendar as an optional memorial, or of a saint inscribed in the Martyrology for that day;
 - c. From a Mass for various needs and occasions, or from a votive Mass;
 - d. From any Mass for the Dead, though the formulas of the daily Mass for the Dead may only be used if the Mass is actually said for the dead. If he celebrates with a congregation, the priest should first consider the spiritual good of the faithful and beware of imposing his own personal preferences. In particular, he should not omit the readings assigned for each day in the weekday lectionary too frequently or without a sufficient reason, since the Church desires that a richer portion of God's Word be laid before the people.

For the same reason he should use Masses for the Dead sparingly, for every Mass is offered for both the living and the dead and there is remembrance of the dead in each Eucharistic Prayer. Where the faithful are attached to the optional memorials of the Blessed Virgin Mary or of the saints, at least one Mass of the memorial should be celebrated to satisfy their legitimate devotion (IM 353).

MASSES AND PRAYERS FOR VARIOUS NEEDS AND OCCASIONS AND VOTIVE MASSES

(IM. 368-378)

11. Given the wide faculties granted for the choice of readings and prayers, it is appropriate that Masses for various needs and occasions be used in moderation, that is to say when circumstances demand it.
12. In these Masses, unless specific indication is given to the contrary, it is best to take the weekday readings and the accompanying intervening chants if they are suitable for the celebration.
13. Ritual Masses, or those which are combined with the celebration of one or other sacrament or sacramental, are not permitted on the Sundays of the Advent, Lent and Easter seasons, on solemnities, on the days within the Easter Octave, on All Souls, on Ash Wednesday, or within Holy Week, in accordance with the norms set out in the ritual books or printed with the Masses themselves.
14. As regards Masses for various needs and occasions and votive Masses, it should be noted that:
 - a. A Mass may be celebrated for any serious need or pastoral advantage by order or with the permission of the local Ordinary on any day except on the Sundays of Advent, Lent and the Easter season, on solemnities, on the days within the Easter Octave, on All Souls, on Ash Wednesday, or within Holy Week.

- b. A Mass may be celebrated for any real need or pastoral advantage with the people according to the discretion of the rector of the church or the celebrating priest himself, even on days on which there falls an obligatory memorial or a weekday of Advent before 17 December, a weekday of the Christmas season from 2 January onwards, or a weekday of the Easter season outside the Easter Octave, all of which are days when votive Masses are not permitted.
- c. Masses and prayers for various needs and occasions and votive Masses which are provided for the benefit of the people's devotion may be used only on weekdays in Ordinary Time when no obligatory memorial occurs. Moreover it is possible to use only the prayers of such Masses, retaining the readings and other elements assigned to that particular weekday (IM 363,377, 358).

NUPTIAL MASSES

15. Whenever marriage is celebrated within Mass, the Mass for Spouses is used, along with white vestments. If, however, the celebration coincides with Solemnities that are holydays of obligation, Sundays of Advent, Lent and the Easter Season, Holy Thursday, Easter Triduum, Solemnities other than holidays of obligation and All Souls day, the Mass of the day is used with its own proper readings, plus the nuptial blessing and if appropriate the final blessing of the wedding Mass. If however, in the Christmas season, or in Ordinary Time, the sacrament of marriage is celebrated within a Mass at which the parish community participates, the Sunday Mass is used.

Since, however, the Liturgy of the Word is of great moment in the celebration of marriage for a catechesis regarding the sacrament and the duties conferred upon the spouses, in cases where the Mass for Spouses is not used, one of the readings may be taken from among those provided for the celebration of marriage (OM 34).

16. If marriage is celebrated on a day of penitential character, especially within Lent, the parish priest should advise that account be taken of that character. The celebration of marriage on Good Friday and on the day following, Holy Saturday, is absolutely forbidden (OM 32).

THE ANNIVERSARIES OF THE POPE,
THE BISHOP, AND OF THE CELEBRANT'S OWN
PRIESTLY ORDINATION

17. On weekdays in Ordinary Time it is permissible to use the Mass for the anniversary of the Pope or of the Bishop or of the celebrant's own priestly ordination, or to use simply the prayers, or indeed just the collect. Moreover, if pastoral advantage so suggests, the Mass for these occasions may even be used on other days, in conformity with what was said above regarding Masses and prayers Masses for various needs and occasions and votive Masses (cf. n. 14 b). It is in any event fitting that special mention be made of such anniversaries in the Prayer of the Faithful.

MASSES FOR THE DEAD
(IM, 379-385)

18. First place among Masses for the Dead is held by the Funeral Mass, which may be celebrated on any day except on holidays of obligation, on Maundy Thursday, during the Paschal Triduum, or on the Sundays of the Advent, Lent and Easter seasons.
19. If the funeral Mass is combined directly with the funeral rite, once the prayer after communion has been said, omitting the concluding rites of Mass, the rite of final commendation and farewell is enacted. This is not to be done unless the body is actually present. It is appropriate that the paschal candle be placed lit near the bier.
20. On reception of news of a death, on the occasion of a final burial, or on the first anniversary, a Mass for the Dead may be used even on days within the Christmas Octave, and on an obligatory memorial, or on other weekdays, other than on Ash Wednesday or within Holy Week.

21. Daily Masses of the Dead, unless some real need of the faithful dictates otherwise, are permitted only on weekdays in Ordinary Time, and on optional memorials or days when the weekday Office is used, provided too that the Mass is actually said for the dead.
22. In Masses for the Dead purple vestments should be preferred. The playing of the organ and other musical instruments is allowed only for the purposes of supporting the singing (CB 252).

REGARDING STIPEND FOR MASSES TO BE RECEIVED BY THE PRIEST

23. "Separate Masses must be applied for the intentions of those for whom an individual offering, even if small, has been made and accepted" (C. 948). Therefore, the priest who accepts a stipend for the celebration of the Mass for a particular intention, is bound in justice to fulfill that obligation either by himself or by committing it to another priest, observing at the same time the conditions laid down by the Canon Law (CC. 948-949, 954-955).

Priests can celebrate the Mass which is called collective, provided the many offerers are explicitly informed beforehand that their stipend, together with the offering of stipends of others, will be put together for one Mass. He has also to give them the reason for this arrangement and obtain their free and willing consent. It is also the priest's duty to publish the place and the time of celebrating this Mass, at most twice in a week. The celebrant in this case can retain only the stipend fixed in the diocese. The amount remaining over and above this stipend, is to be remitted to the Ordinary, who has to spend it for the purpose determined by the law (CC. 496, 950-951).

REGARDING VARIOUS PARTS OF THE CELEBRATION

24. The Gloria (Glory to God in the highest) is used on Sundays outside Advent and Lent, on solemnities and feasts, on the days within the Octaves of Christmas and Easter, and at special solemn celebrations (IM 53)
25. Only one Collect or opening presidential prayer of the day is said, and this applies also to the prayer over the gifts and that after communion. Prayers for any particular need or the remembrance of any anniversary are to be made in the Prayer of the Faithful.

26. In the weekday lectionary, there are readings laid down for every day in all the weeks of the whole year. These readings should be used for the day to which they are assigned unless there occurs a solemnity, a feast or else a memorial that has its own proper readings (treating of the particular mystery or the particular saint). In Masses for special groups it is permissible for the priest to choose readings more appropriate to the group, provided that the readings are taken from among those of the approved lectionary (IM 358).
27. The Creed is to be said on Sundays and on solemnities and may also be said on more solemn special occasions.
28. The norms regarding the recitation of each of the Eucharistic Prayers are included with the prayer itself. In Masses which have a proper Preface, it is not possible to use an Eucharistic Prayer which incorporates its own fixed preface, that is to say a preface which forms one whole with the rest of the Eucharistic Prayer. This is the case with the Fourth Eucharistic Prayer and may also occur with texts approved for local Churches.
29. The faithful receive Holy Communion after the communion of the priest. It is highly appropriate that the faithful receive the Body of the Lord by means of hosts consecrated at that same Mass and that on the occasions laid down they also communicate from the chalice, so that through such signs Holy Communion may more clearly be seen to be a sharing in the sacrifice being celebrated (IM 85, 282-283).

The faithful who have already received the Blessed Eucharist once, may also receive it again on the same day, (that is to say for no more than a second time only on that same day), in the Course of a further Eucharistic celebration in which they take part (cf. CCL, canon 917 and the authoritative interpretation of the same promulgated on 26 June 1984).

30. Communion under both kinds is permitted, in addition to the cases set out in the ritual books also:
- To priests who are unable to celebrate or concelebrate Mass;
 - to the deacon and others who fulfill some particular office at the Mass;
 - Community members at Conventional Masses or "Community" mass, seminarians, retreatants, anyone taking part in a spiritual or pastoral gathering.

The Diocesan Bishop has the faculty to permit Communion under both kinds whenever it may seem appropriate to the priest to whom a given community is entrusted as its own pastor, provided that the faithful are well instructed, that there is no danger of the Sacrament being profaned and that the rite is not difficult to carry out on account of the great number of participants or some other reason.

DAYS OF PENANCE

(CCL nn. 1250-1253)

1. The days and times of penance for all the Latin Church are each Friday of the whole year and the season of Lent.
2. Abstinence from meat, or from some other food as determined by the Episcopal Conference, is to be observed on all Fridays, except when a solemnity falls on a Friday. Abstinence and fasting are to be observed on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday.
3. All are bound by the law of abstinence who have reached the age of fourteen. The law of fasting applies to all who have reached the age of fourteen until after their fifty-ninth birthday. Pastors of souls and parents should ensure that even those who are still too young to be bound by the laws of fasting and abstinence are trained to have a true appreciation of penance.
4. The Episcopal Conference can lay down more particular norms regarding the practice of fasting and abstinence. It may also substitute, either in whole or in part, other forms of penance, above all works of charity and devotional exercises, in place of abstinence or fasting. The following is suggested by Episcopal Conference:

1. Attending Mass
2. Making at least a 15 minute visit to the Blessed Sacrament
3. Reading the Bible for 15 minutes
4. Meditation on the passion of our Lord for 15 minutes.
5. Making the Way of the Cross
6. Missing breakfast or anyone meal
7. Taking strictly vegetarian meals (avoiding Fish and Egg as well)
8. Giving 10% of one's daily earnings in charity

THE LITURGY OF THE HOURS

Obligation of the Liturgical Hours

1. Bishops, priests and deacons who aspired to the priesthood, have received a mandate from the Church to celebrate the Liturgy of the Hours and should complete all the Hours each day, and in so far as possible at the proper times of the day.

Due importance should be given especially to those Hours which are so to speak the hinge of the Divine Office, namely Lauds and Vespers, the morning and evening Hours. These should not be omitted without a serious reason.

Likewise, the Office of Readings which is above all a liturgical celebration of the Word of God, should be especially faithfully completed, so in a special way they may fulfil their own sacred function, receiving themselves the Word of God, by which they may become more perfect disciples of the Lord and may know more deeply the unfathomable riches of Christ.

In this way they should better sanctify the whole day, having at heart also the recitation of the Middle Hours and also Compline, by which before going to bed they should complete the whole Divine Office and commend themselves to God. (IH. 29)

2. Cathedral and collegiate chapters should celebrate in choir those parts of the Liturgy of the Hours stipulated for them by general and local law.

The individual member of such chapters is bound to recite privately in addition to the Hours laid down for all sacred ministers, also those Hours that are incumbent upon his chapter. (IH. 31a)

3. Religious communities bound to the recitation of the Liturgy of the Hours and each individual religious, should celebrate the Hours according to their particular law, without prejudice to what pertains to sacred orders for those who have received them. (IH. 31b)

PRAYER INTENTIONS OF THE HOLY FATHER ENTRUSTED TO THE APOSTLESHIP OF PRAYER
FOR THE LITURGICAL YEAR 2018-19

What is the process in the preparation of the prepared prayer intentions? The faithful from around the world suggest papal prayer intentions to the international office of the Apostleship of Prayer in Rome. Through prayerful discernment the Apostleship selects a large number of them and submits them to the Vatican for further selection, with the Pope making the final selection. The Vatican then entrusts to the Apostleship of Prayer the official set of monthly prayer intentions, which the Apostleship then translates into the major world languages and publishes in print and digital formats.

Prayer to St. John Maria Vianney

Dear St. John Maria Vianney, Cure of Ars, we revere in you the great model of sacerdotal life. We recall with admiration your detachment from the things of the world; your deep humility and acceptance of humiliations; your extraordinary spirit of mortification and penance; your fortitude in trials and against the assaults of the devil; your purity, union with God and love of the Eucharist; your unremitting zeal and untiring service of souls by day and by night, at the confessional and in the pulpit; your compassion for all those in want - the sick, the poor and the sinners; your rare power to draw people to God. True priest of the Most High, help our priests in the Archdiocese of Hyderabad ever to keep striving towards the acquisition of these virtues, so that they can become shepherds after God's own heart. Amen.
